

GRAND JURY RETURNS BUT THREE TRUE BILLS

The grand jury was in session the first four days of this week, and of many cases which they had to consider, the most important was that of the State of Ohio against Frank Kraft of Hinkley, who on the night of June 19, shot his father Jos. Kraft, to death in the yard of the family home, and for which he subsequently was bound over to the grand jury under a bond of $2,500, which was furnished, charged with second degree murder.

The grand jury did not indict him. About eighteen witnesses were summoned, all of whom, it is said, gave testimony favorable to the boy, and that he unquestionably killed his father through fear that his own life and that of his mother were about to be sacrificed. Not only is this sentiment entertained by the mother, but it has prevailed throughout the township of Hinkley from the time the shooting occurred. Kraft had repeatedly threatened to kill his family and they were constantly in mortal fear of him, say those who were familiar with conditions at the Kraft home. The action of the grand jury appears to meet with general approval.

Indictments were found against Joe Caruso, Julian Arapazo, and Jno. Nugent, for carrying concealed weapons, also against Nugent for burglary and for contributing to the delinquency of a minor, and R. V. Shayeby, for breaking into and entering the store of Prince & Orr, Wadsworth.

Seventy-seven witnesses were examined, covering 21 cases, and nine out of 12 bills presented ignored.

FARMERS WARNED OF OHIO'S FIRE PLOT

Reports made Tuesday to the Ohio Defense Council by State Fire Marshal T. A. Fleming show conclusively, according to a report of the council, that German sympathizers in Ohio have carried deceptions even to the wheat fields of the state.

Fleming showed to the defense council reports made by his deputies in northwestern Ohio counties where pro-German feeling has been alleged to exist before, revealing that fire bugs the morning of Sept. 17 set fire to two grain elevators—one of them adjoining a barn filled with grain and ten acres of oats, the other within 100 feet of a barn filled with grain and a large hay stack.

As a result of these investigations, the Ohio Defense Council, acting by the Ohio Defense Council, asking farmers and farm owners to take further precautions against fire hazards. He said:

"What is necessary now is eternal vigilance, loyalty of workmen, thorough inspection of water supply and private fire protection. No plant or repository should be left unguarded or misguarded."

RETIRED CLERGYMEN MAY BECOME TEACHERS

A pronounced shortage of teachers throughout the state, especially in the rural districts, is reported by Frank B. Pearson, state superintendent of schools. The war and abnormal activity in business it has brought about are responsible for the dearth in teaching talent, Supt. Pearson said.

Many teachers have left their profession for better paying positions, and many male teachers have entered military service. Still others, he said, have been diverted from entering the teaching profession as a result of the war.

To meet the emergency, Supt. Pearson has recommended that former teachers, married or unmarried, be engaged to fill vacancies.

He also suggested that teaching talent might also be found among retired clergymen who had teaching experience in their early days. The State department he says, is willing to issue emergency certificates to such teachers to meet the needs of the schools.

The appointment this week of C. W. Sloan of York, a retired teacher, as superintendent of the Lafayette school, was an emergency appointment, mail to soldiers in the regular army, tion was filed with the county commission.

APPEAL COURT SESSION

The court of appeals was in session last Friday. Judges Carpenter and Lehigh arrived early, but Judge Grant didn't get here until nearly noon. Two cases were heard—Elmore Liston vs. John A. Statler, R. L. Adair, Robert Berry, J. C. Sloan, R. A. Davis and E. T. Pierce, the latter of Medina, and Wm. Standen vs. the State of Ohio.

The first case was tried several months ago in the lower court. The original petition of plaintiff set forth that in October, 1916, defendants conspired to injure plaintiff, in person, property and reputation, by wrongfully and maliciously causing his arrest for the alleged removal of mortgaged property from Ashland county. It appeared that Mr. Pierce was employed merely as a hired man by the other defendants and knew nothing of the details of the case until his subsequent connection with the case as party defendant. Plaintiff sued for $3,000 damages.

The second case resulted from a conviction of Wm. Standen in common pleas court for operating a theater on Sunday, the case hanging on whether a moving picture show is a theatrical performance within the meaning of the law. Standen resides in Wadsworth. Decisions on both cases were reserved by the court.

FIRE DISCOVERED IN ROOT CO. STORE ROOM

There was "hurry to and fro" last Saturday afternoon when the smell of smoke directed watchman Lorimer of the Root Co. to an incipient fire in the company's store room, near the Northern Ohio tracks.

A hemp rope had been burned away the rope until it reached a pile of cartons, when it was discovered. The fire is thought to have been caused accidentally by boys, who pried open a window and entered, presumably to smoke. That it was not of incendiary origin, is indicated by the fire starting in the daytime, and that a pile of highly inflammable material was only a few feet away from the cartons, the latter of which, being packed tightly would burn very slowly.

SEVILLE VILLAGE WOULD ACQUIRE MORE TERRITORY

Obviously for the purpose of increasing the corporation revenue the council of Seville village, on June 4 of the present year, passed an ordinance to annex a certain portion of Guilford township to the village, and the mayor, C. V. Matteson, was authorized and directed by the ordinance to prosecute the necessary proceedings to effect the annexation of the territory. To that end a copy of the ordinance together with a blue print of the proposed added territory, was filed with the county commissioners.

No sooner was this action taken than a petition protesting against annexation was filed with the county commissioners, signed by Jacob Miller, E. J. Miller, J. F. Dix, Ida Flickinger, Hattie Cunningham, E. A. Smith, Ada L. Smith, L. T. Nye, Mary E. Kelso, S. K. Dundas, M. E. Frazier and C. E. Walker, abutting property owners.

The protest is based upon the claim that the extension is not needed and "entirely unneeded." Proceeding, the protest says, "They do not need the land for building purposes, as there are now many vacant lots all over the village growing to weeds and a constant loss to their owners. The village has practically nothing to offer us except added taxes, and will take away our rural mail delivery, which will make it very unhandy for us."

The township trustees of Guilford also disfavor annexation because of the reduction of revenue to the township it will entail, thus the proposition, so far as the village and township are concerned, is reduced to a tug-of-war.

The land in question is described as follows:

"Situated in the township of Guilford, beginning at a point 12.82 feet east of the northwest corner of village lot No. 320, said point being 200 feet west of the west margin of Center street; thence north parallel to the center line of Center street, thru the lands of J. C. Stoaks, J. F. Dix, M. E. Frazier and Lee Nye, a distance of 233 feet to the center line of Center street; thence east in the same line a distance of 233 feet to a point; then south parallel to the center line of Center street, thru the lands of Mary E. Kelso, E. A. Smith, C. E. Walker, E. J. Miller, a distance of 1163 feet to a point in the present north corporation line; then west along the north corporation line a distance of 266 feet to a point in the west margin of Center street; thence north along the west margin of Center street a distance of 33.63 feet, to the northeast corner of village lot No. 320, a distance of 200 feet to the place of beginning."

Attorneys Arthur Van Epp and F. W. Woods of Medina represent respectively the village and abutting property owners. The board of commissioners were to have heard the merits of the case discussed at their meeting on Monday, but the attorneys asked for a continuance until October 16.

PLEAD GUILTY TO SERIOUS CHARGES

On a warrant sworn to by Marshal Thos. Lucas, of Wadsworth and served by him, Alpheus Jarvis, 23, and Gladys Secor, 14, both of Wadsworth, were arrested Tuesday afternoon, the latter being charged with delinquency and the former with having contributed to her delinquency. Both spent the night in the county jail.

They were given a hearing before Probate Judge VanDeusen Wednesday afternoon, when both plead guilty to the charges against them. Jarvis is a member of Co. G, Eighth regiment, and is a native of West Virginia. Rev. Wolf of Wadsworth appeared in the interests of the girl, and it was largely due to that her downfall was brought out to the precarious manner in which she has been reared. Mrs. O. H. McDowell and Mrs. F. O. Phillips, members of the Advisory Board, were present at the hearing. Jarvis and the girl were given indeterminate sentences, the former to the reformatory at Mansfield, the latter to the Girls' Industrial School at Delaware. Both will be taken to the respective institutions this week.

100th ANNIVERSARY

Rev. G. T. N. Beam, Rev. C. B. Etter, D. D. of Wadsworth; Rev. E. R. Willard, Rev. H. J. Rohrbaugh and Rev. W. S. Adams of Akron and Rev. Jacob Hale of Carrothers, delivered addresses at the recent celebration of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the High church, southeast of Wadsworth, which has the distinction of being located in three counties—Medina, Summit and Wayne. In the cemetery are buried 520 persons, one of them, Mrs. Elizabeth Everhard, over 100 years, the date of interment being August 4, 1817.

MONDAY BEGINS SALE OF 2d LIBERTY BONDS

Next Monday morning, Oct. 1, will begin the sale of bonds of the nation's second Liberty Loan, which this time is $3,000,000,000, and the time allowed for the disposition of the bonds is until Oct. 27.

Medina county in common with every other county in the United States has been called upon by the government to perform its full duty in prosecuting the sale. Medina's apportionment for the first Liberty Loan was $500,000. As we go to press, the apportionment for this county in the second sale had not been learned, but undoubtedly will be as large as the first, and very probably substantially more.

The campaign will be carried on actively from Oct. 1 to Oct. 27, and men in the various townships of the county have been appointed to captain the sales work in their respective fields, in connection with the twelve banks of the county and the Ohio Farmers Insurance Co.

The work is divided as follows: Wadsworth township will be handled by the Wadsworth National Bank and Wadsworth Savings & Trust Co.; Sharon township, by the Sharon Center Banking Co.; Guilford township, by Seville State Bank.

Homerville and Chatham townships, by the Lodi State Bank and Peoples National Bank, Lodi; Liverpool township, by the Farmers Bank, Valley City.

Spencer, by the Farmers Saving Bank and Spencer State Bank, Spencer; York, Medina, Lafayette and Montville townships, by the Savings Deposit Bank Co., Old Phoenix National and Medina County National Bank.

Westfield township, Ohio Farmers Insurance Co., Leroy; Grandview township, Geo. Waite, R. F. D. 2, Medina; Litchfield township, P. O. Shank.

Brunswick township, E. C. Miner; Hinkley township, Rev. C. Seearle, R. D. 2, Brunswick; Melville J. M. Cox of Cleveland, representing Harris, Forbes & Co. of New York, will be in general charge of the county work, and will be here Monday morning to begin the campaign.

Through courtesy of the Wiyah club its parlors were thrown open Wednesday evening for a meeting of representatives of the banking interests of the county, the press, and of men from the different townships who can be counted on to give their time and efforts to further the Liberty Bond campaign, to talk over the situation and discuss the best ways and means of prosecuting the sale of bonds in Medina county. Joseph R. Bond, vice president of The Citizens Saving & Trust Co., Cleveland, was present by invitation, and told of what had been and was going to be done in his city, and advised of the work to be done in Medina. Mr. Harris had charge of his bank's work in the first Liberty Loan, which bank had the largest number of sales in the county, and he explained the Liberty Bond campaign, and the importance of the work.

Those holding the first loan bonds for which they have not yet received even certificates, need have no fear, as they will receive them in due time, and later the regular engraved bonds will be issued. The government took many engravers from its regular money department, with the result, according to a local banker, that banks have actually been unable to get as many one dollar bills as their business requires, and the bonds are not all issued yet.

The government took many engravers from its regular money department, with the result, according to a local banker, that banks have actually been unable to get as many one dollar bills as their business requires, and the bonds are not all issued yet.

Medina county fell short only a very few thousands of dollars of her half million dollar apportionment of the first bond issue, and as will be remembered the time was brief in which sales were made. There will be more time for the second bond sale, but as the government is anxious to get the bonds sold as quickly as possible, and the time will be made for such exchange.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT FIRST LIBERTY BONDS

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo has suggested that holders of receipts who desire to convert their purchase into bonds of the second issue, hold their receipts or interim certificates and turn them in in exchange for the bonds of the second issue, rather than secure their bonds of the first issue, and turn them in in exchange. No charge will be made for such exchange.

DEATH OF FORMER PASTOR

Mrs. Helen McDowell received a telegram Tuesday announcing the death of Rev. C. J. Ryder, which occurred suddenly at his home in Stamford, Conn. Rev. Ryder was pastor of the Congregational church of Medina for several years, leaving here about 30 years ago, and later becoming secretary of the American Missionary association. He was a man of extraordinary ability, of sterling worth, and to whom the people of Medina, regardless of denomination, were greatly attached. Rev. Ryder always held a reciprocal feeling toward Medina and her people, and many times revisited the scenes of his former charge, his last visit here being a year ago, when he spoke at the Congregational church. There are still many in Medina who will remember Rev. Ryder and read with sorrow of his death.

DERHAMMER-BIGELOW

Mr. Elias E. Derhammer of Medina and Mrs. Mary E. Bigelow of Cleveland, were united in marriage Thursday noon in Wadsworth, by Rev. Wm. Standen. Both parties are well-known in Medina, the bride a daughter of Joseph Bigelow, being a former resident. Mr. and Mrs. Derhammer will reside at 384 N. Court street.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF COUNTY W. C. T. U.

The annual convention of the County W. C. T. U. was held in Medina Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, at the M. E. church.

Executive meeting was called at 2 p. m., Tuesday, with the president, Mrs. Wood, of Wadsworth, in the chair.

Tuesday evening the meeting opened with an organ voluntary by J. Beck. All joined in singing "America" and were led in prayer by Rev. Goddard, after which the ladies' quartet sang a number. The address of the evening was given by Rev. C. C. Gohn, manager of Summit County Dry Federation. He mentioned some of the things John Barleycorn has been doing. "He has been wielding the scepter of unlimited power, but now he is seeing his last days. The census of opinion around Washington, D. C. that he is going out of business, and that the thing that will help most of all, is for Ohio to go dry. We lost two years ago, because the Drys stood at home, over confident that Ohio would win out. John Barleycorn says he paid $5,000,000 taxes, but we paid him $10,000,000 revenue across the bar."

"The old personal liberty argument is up again. A woman has person liberty to take in washings, and clean dirty office rooms and a lot of them are going to lose their jobs when J. B. goes out of business, and a lot of men will get a new job—an honest job. Talk about regulating a saloon! You might as well talk about regulating a skunk!"

Wednesday morning, after the singing of a hymn, Rev. S. F. Ross led the devotions and Mrs. Hartman presided. The Medina union, welcomed the ladies to our town, in behalf of our nation. Mayor Randall spoke in behalf of the town, and said he "had the highest regard for the organization—that he refused to be defeated in the face of all kinds of reverses, and that the wear of the white ribbon never wore the white feather."

R. A. Slow spoke in behalf of the Y. M. C. A. of Medina county, and of the young men in the army, all of whom were present. The following were present: Wm. Drew spoke in behalf of the Medina churches, likening the union to a vine, deep-rooted with wide-spreading branches.

Durling of Wadsworth, responded to the addresses of welcome, in a happy vein, after which the secretary, Mrs. Ammerman of Sharon, read the report of the presidents of various unions, and the superintendents of the various departments. Afternoon dinner was served by the Medina union.

At 1:30, after devotions, led by Mrs. Beech of Medina, the reports of the county president and treasurer, were given.

The State Vice President gave a fine talk on "Campaign Plans," and mentioned some of the W. C. T. U. doing. They sent three ambulances to France, and are responsible for most of the advertising seen.

Next was election of officers. Mrs. Wood, president, handed in her resignation, which was received very reluctantly. She has been president for the past three years. The following were the new officers: Mrs. Hartman, Medina, president; Mrs. Wood, Wadsworth, vice president; Mrs. Ross, Sharon, rec. sec.; Mrs. Hartman, Medina, cor. sec.; Mrs. Ammerman, Sharon, treas.

The representative from the Dry Federation at the evening session, was Mr. Hays, who did much to make West Virginia dry.

The subject of the address of Mrs. Fuller, "The Handwriting on the Flag" was given as being in the nature of a dream. Among the names of our patriots and reformers, written thereon, was found a dark blot, due to our government's position on the liquor. He, being the license laid upon it in the days of the Civil War, to increase revenue. That law was never repealed.

FIFTH REGIMENT NOW IN ALABAMA

Eleven companies of the Fifth Regiment of Ohio Infantry entrained Tuesday for Ft. Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala., three trains being provided for the transportation of the regiment, the first leaving the Erie depot, Cleveland late in the afternoon, the others following at short intervals thereafter.

Six units of the Second Ohio Field Artillery departed Monday afternoon, and it is reported that the week will cover the departure of nearly 3,000 uniformed and well-drilled men.

The following Medina boys are members of the Fifth regiment and left with their comrades for Camp Sheridan:

Jos. Seymour, Ferd Cannon, Fred Moehle, Neil Roshon, Harold Roshon, Max Sargeant, Frank Zadick.

FIRST AID CLASS FOR RED CROSS

Dr. J. R. Gleason has been appointed by the Cleveland Red-Cross chapter to instruct the classes in first aid in Medina.

The class met Tuesday evening at 6:30, at the library, for the first lesson. If there are any others who wish to take this course, it is not too late to join the class. The next lesson will be given Monday evening, Oct. 1, at 7:30, at the Red Cross room of the Sylvester Library. Committee:

Mrs. J. R. Kennan, Miss Minnie Wells, Mrs. Harold Zeigler, Mrs. R. O. McDowell.

MAY GO TO FRANCE

Ralph Harrington, of the 84th Aero Squadron, stationed at San Antonio, notice of whose recent promotion to the position of sergeant-major was reported in the Sentinel, writes to us that he is likely to go to France in a few weeks. Ten squadrons including the 52d, to which Ralph formerly belonged, left for France on the 17th. He reports the weather in San Antonio as excessively hot, although the nights are very comfortably cool. Ralph writes that his clerical work keeps him on the jump, but that he grabs sufficient time to keep posted on affairs at home through letters and county newspapers.

YORK MAN HEADS LAFAYETTE SCHOOLS

J. H. Lamneck, who was elected superintendent of the Lafayette schools, wired his resignation to County Superintendent Jenks last Saturday, stating that he had entered the State military service. The resignation came as a surprise as Prof. Lamneck's household goods had already arrived, and the schools were to open Monday.

Dist. Supt. Fred Myers opened the schools Monday and Monday night the board elected Mr. C. W. Sloan of York to succeed Mr. Lamneck, the former taking up the work Tuesday morning, at a salary of $110 a month.

Mr. Sloan is a graduate of the Tristate college at Angola, Ind., and has served as superintendent of schools at Deahler and Genoa, O., also at Mt. Dora, Fla. which position he held last year.

CLUB CONTESTS AT FAIR AROUSED GREAT INTEREST

In spite of all the many obstacles due to the late opening of schools throughout the county, the scare due to infantile paralysis, the exhibit of the various school clubs organized throughout the county aroused quite an interest at the fair last week. The boys and girls entered these clubs with the purpose not only of helping Uncle Sam in his scrap with Kaiser Bill, but also to win some of the elegant prizes offered.

The Home Making club seemed to stand first in number. About a dozen girls entered these clubs, and their work during the summer consisted in canning and preserving vegetables and fruits under the direction of the Extension Department of the State Agricultural college. There were five of these girls who exhibited at the fair.

The exhibit consisted of five cans of jelly, and five other fruits, also a loaf of bread for each girl. This was accomplished by a note book explaining the work, the cost, and a story of the summer's work.

The exhibit was all carefully graded and decided upon by Miss Mary Ann Graber of the State University. The prizes were awarded as follows: Miss Margaret Clapp of Chatham, 1st, with a score of 85.76 per cent, was given a trip to Washington, D. C. by the Savings Deposit Bank of Medina; Miss Ruth Swanker of Litchfield, 2nd, with a score of 80.8, was given a trip to Columbus, by the county fair board; Miss Clara Wolf of York won third, with a prize of $5.00, with a score of 79.9; Miss Bessie Gallatin of Litchfield won fourth, score 78.9, prize $3.00, and Miss Ada Burden of Litchfield, with a score of 72.5 won fifth prize of $1.00.

The poultry contest was easily won by Herbert Wolff of York. Twelve boys entered the contest, but for certain reasons failed to appear. Mr. Wolff gets a trip to Columbus during Farmers week.

The pig contest was won by Niel Neiss of Lafayette. The judge from the university remarking that the exhibit and story told of the work, ranked well with any in the state. This boy also gets a trip to Columbus for Farmers week, by the fair board.

Next year, with the stimuli of the splendid stories these boys and girls bring back, we should have a hundred enter these contests, and an exhibit that would make a large feature of the fair.

READING MATTER FOR THE BOYS IN CAMP

Under the direction of the Library War Council a country wide campaign is on this week to raise a million dollar fund for the purpose of placing books and reading matter in the hands of the boys in the training camps and at the front. With considerable leisure time at their disposal and far removed from their usual supply of reading it is of great importance that these boys be provided with suitable reading matter. Already quantities of reading matter are being donated and used thru Y. M. C. A. and kindred organizations, but there is need for a more systematic and far-reaching provision for libraries and books of reference in the cantonments where many thousands are congregated for training.

The direction of this work as well as the raising of the necessary funds has been delegated to the American Library association. It is this association which is directing the campaign now on. The quota assigned to each community is a sum equal to 5 cents for each inhabitant. This means $150 for Medina village, and a correspondingly larger amount including the adjacent country districts.

You are asked to leave or send your contribution to Miss Johnson, Librarian. Amounts of one dollar are asked. Those who feel disposed to pay more, will be glad to help bear the share of many who cannot do so much.

CIGARS FOR THIS

A Cleveland Press correspondent is authority for this good one on Sheriff Gehman:

Sheriff Rufe Gehman of Medina county drove his fine little motor car to the Medina County Fair. He parked it with hundreds of other cars of the same popular make. When he was ready to leave he couldn't remember the number of his car, or pick it out from among all the others. So he had to wait until all others drove away, and then take the car that was left.

The Temple Workers of the Baptist church met Wednesday afternoon at the church to transact business, after which supper and a general social time was enjoyed. All members of the church and congregation were invited, and there was a good attendance.

400 MORE MEN TO BE EXAMINED SOON

Five hundred men of Medina county's total registration, 1925, have already been examined, and 58 have been sent away to camp, six in the first contingent of the 130 quota, and 52 in the second, which departed from Wadsworth for Chillicothe last Thursday morning.

Below is given a list of 400 names of those who will be called for the next examination, probably on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. From this number will be taken the men who are to leave in the third contingent of the county's quota, which, if 45 per cent, as reported on Wednesday, will be 58 men. There being but 30 available men now left from the first two examinations, it will require 28 men from the next lot of men examined to fill out the required contingent.

President Hiers of the county draft board received a telegram from Gov. Cox, Wednesday morning, not to send any more men until further orders, but for what reason could not be learned. Examinations will proceed as outlined, however, and it is expected that the next or third contingent will be but little delayed in getting away. Following close upon the next examination it is probable that all the rest of the county's registration will be examined, so that the men may not be held any longer in uncertainty as to their physical eligibility for service.

By completing physical examinations now, the way would be cleared for calling out the second draft levy with much less effort and waste of time than was encountered in the first call. Here is a list of those who will be physically examined next week:

LONG AUTO BLAST SINGLED OF DANGER

To Claude Hatch of Medina and Fred Barlow of Litchfield is due the credit of saving the life of one person, at least, if not two, in an auto accident Tuesday night, a mile or two north of Wooster.

In passing a bridge the attention of the men was attracted by the continuous blowing of an auto horn. After traveling some distance and still hearing the horn, at Mr. Barlow's suggestion the machine was stopped and he walked back to the bridge, where ten feet below he discovered a man with his face in the mud, underneath the machine, with head pinned tight, and a woman in the machine unable to extricate herself, or call for help.

Barlow and Hatch summoned assistance from a farm house some distance away, and by combined efforts lifted the machine sufficient to liberate the unfortunate couple. The machine was a large one and it is probable that one or both of the parties would have died in a short time, but for the prompt action of Barlow and the timely assistance of the two men.

The driver stated that, owing to a defective light, in turning out for another machine he failed to see the bridge, and dashed over the side.

The parties were G. N. Shriver an Akron real estate dealer, and his bride, who were on their wedding trip. They were conveyed back to Wooster.
